

Curriculum Vitae

Michael S. Grenis, M.D.

Address: Princeton Orthopaedic Associates, P.A.
325 Princeton Avenue
Princeton, NJ 08540

Telephone: (Office) (609) 924-8131
(Fax) (609) 924-8532

Education:

New York Medical College 9/1980-6/1984
Valhalla, N.Y.
Doctor of Medicine, June, 1984

Cornell University 8/1976-5/1980
Ithaca, N.Y.
Bachelor of Arts, Biochemistry, May, 1980

Post Graduate Training:

Hand Surgery Fellowship 7/1989-6/1990
New York University Medical Center, New York, N.Y.

Orthopedic Surgery Residency 7/1985-6/1989
New York University Medical Center, New York, N.Y.

General Surgery Internship 6/1984-6/1985
New York University Medical Center, New York, N.Y.

Hospital Affiliation:

University Medical Center of Princeton 6/1990- present
Plainsboro, N.J.

Capital Health System 10/1994- present
Trenton, N.J. and Hopewell, N.J.

Pocono Medical Center 7/2011- present
East Stroudsburg, Pa.

Board Certification:

American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery

Certified in July, 1992

Recertified January 2003 through December 2012

Recertified January 2013 through December 2022

Licensure:

New Jersey License 54731 since 5/1990

New York License 163411 since 7/1985

Pennsylvania License MD442362 since 3/2011

North Dakota License 11869 since 7/2011

Professional Memberships:

American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons

New Jersey Orthopaedic Society

Orthopaedic Trauma Association

Publications

“Operative Treatment of Distal Radius Fractures in the Senior Populace,” presented at the American Association for Surgery of the Hand, October, 1990 in Boston, MA.

“Ankle Dislocation Without Fracture: Case Report and a Review of the Literature.” CONTEMPORARY ORTHOPAEDICS, August 1989.

“Guide for Proper Placement of an Asnis Screw Above a Sliding Hip Screw.” ORTHOPAEDIC REVIEW, July, 1989

Honors

Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society – New York Medical College, 1984

Named a “Top Doctor” by the Castle Connolly Guide to Top Doctors in The New York Metro Area since 2001

